MAXIMUM CARDS

2. The twelfth set of maximum cards will also be issued on 14 March 1996. Three different cards will be produced to accommodate the three different se-tenant blocks of four stamps being issued. The appropriate se-tenant blocks of stamps will be affixed and cancelled first day of issue relevant to the respective office. The maximum card cancelled United Nations New York will sell for $1.58. The cancelled United Nation Geneva is priced at $3.06, while the cancelled United Nations Vienna is priced at $3.10, subject to exchange rate fluctuations.

1996 ENDANGERED SPECIES ANNUAL COLLECTION

3. UNPA will release the 1996 Endangered species annual collection folder on 14 March 1996. The specially designed album will devote separate pages to each of the 12 endangered species. The album will contain information in English, French and German and be beautifully highlighted by an array of colourful photographs relative to the species. The mint edition of the folder will contain the 12 endangered species stamps not affixed inside the album although spaces and mounts have been provided for this purpose. The cancelled edition of the folder will have the stamps affixed and cancelled first day of issue in New York, Geneva and Vienna as appropriate. Each of the folders will sell for $8.09, subject to exchange rate fluctuations.

GENERAL INFORMATION

4. For the convenience of collectors, UNPA at Headquarters will provide prepared and cancelled New York, Geneva and Vienna first-day covers on the UNPA official first-day cachets ONLY.

5. Owing to the need to curtail expenses, the new stamps and hand cancellations can be purchased by members of delegations and staff members from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on 14 March 1996 ONLY at the UNPA sales counter in the concourse of the General Assembly Building. There will be no outposted UNPA sales counters in the Secretariat Building until further notice.

6. Staff members are encouraged to use United Nations stamps on their personal mail. By doing so, these miniature messengers of peace can educate unseen thousands of people to the activities and goals of the United Nations.

7. Information on United Nations stamps can be accessed on the Internet at the United Nations Web server (http://WWW.UN.ORG) under the "Publications and Sales" icon.

INFORMATION CIRCULAR

To: Members of the staff

From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management

Subject: 1996 COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR ENGLISH INTERPRETERS

1. A competitive examination for English interpreters will be held on 6 and 7 June 1996 in New York, Geneva, Vienna and other locations according to the number and location of qualified candidates invited to take the examination, and the availability of necessary technical equipment. The purpose of this examination is to establish a roster from which present and future vacancies for English interpreters will be filled.

2. The examination is open to staff members of the United Nations at the P-3 level and below who meet the eligibility requirements, as well as qualified external candidates. Staff members from subsidiary organs of the United Nations and staff members whose service is limited to a particular organ, fund or programme of the United Nations or special missions are considered external candidates for the purpose of this examination. Staff members who pass the examination and are selected for inclusion in the roster will be assigned to fill vacancies as they occur in the English Interpretation Section, Interpretation, Meetings and Documentation Division, Office of Conference and Support Services, of the United Nations Secretariat in New York. Assignments are subject to rotation and interpreters may thereafter be called upon to serve at other duty stations in Asia and Europe according to the needs of the Organization. Interpreters are expected to serve a MINIMUM OF FIVE YEARS in a language post. The assignment of staff members of the United Nations who are successful in the examination and are selected to fill vacancies will be subject to the conditions set out in paragraphs 9 and 10 below.

3. Staff members of the Secretariat applying for the examination must:

(a) Have English as their main language; 1/

96-05796 (E) 120396 140396

(b) Have a perfect command of English and an excellent knowledge of French and, owing to the current special needs of the Organization, Russian. The Board of Examiners, appointed by the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management, requires that candidates' claims to knowledge of official languages must be supported by relevant documentation in their official status files. For this purpose, staff members should either attach to their application a photocopy of a diploma or a certificate from a language school or a brief explanation of how they acquired their knowledge of the languages claimed. Staff members are advised to submit photocopies, not originals, of such documentation;

(c) Hold a degree or an equivalent qualification from a university or institution of equivalent status at which English is the language of instruction and have 200 days of experience as conference interpreters, or 200 days of work experience in the field of translation, editing, verbatim reporting or related fields. Alternatively, candidates must hold a university degree from a recognized school of interpretation.

4. The requirement for a university degree or its equivalent from a university or institution of equivalent status mentioned in paragraph 3 (c) above may be waived for staff members who, in the judgement of the Board of Examiners, have adequate post-secondary educational qualifications from a university or institution of equivalent status and adequate secondary educational qualifications from an establishment at which the principal language of instruction is English, in addition to five years of continuous service with the United Nations Secretariat by 31 December 1989.

5. All applications will be reviewed by the Board of Examiners. All applicants will be notified of the Board's decision in respect of their application. THE BOARD'S DECISIONS ARE FINAL.

6. The examination will consist of two parts:

(a) Simultaneous interpretation into English from recordings of four speeches delivered in French (approximately 5 to 10 minutes per recording);

(b) Simultaneous interpretation into English from recordings of four speeches delivered in Russian (approximately 5 to 10 minutes per recording).

7. On the basis of the results of this examination, the Board of Examiners will invite selected candidates to an interview, which is projected to take place in the second half of September 1996. The Board will interview the selected candidates to assess general culture, professional experience, knowledge of the United Nations and of current events, personality, willingness to serve at any duty station, adaptability to the prevailing working conditions in the English Interpretation Section and, in particular, ability to work as a member of a team. The interview is an integral part of the examination. Therefore, candidates who are invited for an interview should NOT assume that they will be offered an assignment.

8. On the basis of the overall results of the examination, the Board will recommend to the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management the names of candidates who qualify for inclusion in the roster. All candidates admitted to the examination will be informed in writing of the Board's final recommendation in respect of their candidature. The Board's recommendations are NOT subject to appeal. The Board DOES NOT release individual scores/results.

9. Staff members selected to fill vacancies will be assigned as English interpreters for a trial period of two years. Staff members at the P-1 level or below will receive a special post allowance to the P-2 level. Staff members at the P-2 and P-3 levels will be assigned at their respective levels.

10. Staff members with a special post allowance to the P-2 level and those already at the P-2 level who complete the trial period successfully and are recommended by the Office of Conference Services and the Office of Human Resources Management will be promoted to the P-3 level. To be promoted to the P-3 level staff members must have completed the trial period to the complete satisfaction of the Interpretation Service. Staff members already at the P-3 level who complete the trial period successfully will be confirmed in their interpretation functions at the P-3 level. Staff members who do not complete the trial period successfully will be reassigned to posts at their previous levels and the special post allowance, if any, will be discontinued.

11. In order to service meetings of the Security Council or the General Assembly, interpreters are often called upon to work outside normal working hours, including weekends and holidays.

12. Staff members applying for the examination should complete the attached form and submit it, NOT LATER THAN 15 April 1996, to:

1996 Competitive Examination for English Interpreters
Specialist Services Division
Office of Human Resources Management
Room S-2575E
United Nations Secretariat
New York, N.Y. 10017
Fax No.: (1-212) 963-3683

13. In order to ensure receipt of all applications submitted by staff members from offices away from Headquarters, these staff members are requested to return their applications directly to the Specialist Services Division through the chief administrative officer or director of the United Nations information centre of their respective duty stations by 15 April 1996, the deadline for receipt of applications in the Specialist Services Division, OHRM.

Notes

1/ "Main language" should be understood to be the language into which the candidate is best able to interpret. Candidates' claims to English as their main language must be supported by relevant documentation in their official status files.

INFORMATION CIRCULAR

To: Members of the staff

From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management

Subject: 1996 COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR FRENCH VERBATIM REPORTERS

1. A competitive examination for French verbatim reporters will be held on 23 May 1996 in New York, Geneva, Vienna, Paris and other locations according to the number and location of qualified candidates convoked for the examination. The purpose of the examination is to establish a roster from which present and future vacancies for French verbatim reporters will be filled. Staff members who are successful in the examination and are selected for inclusion in the roster will be assigned to fill vacancies as they occur in the French Verbatim Reporting Section, Interpretation, Meetings and Documentation Division, on the recommendation of the Office of Conference and Support Services of the United Nations Secretariat in New York. Verbatim reporters are expected to serve a MINIMUM OF FIVE YEARS in a language post.

2. The examination is open to staff members of the United Nations at the P-3 level and below who meet the eligibility requirements. Staff members from subsidiary organs of the United Nations as well as staff members whose service is limited to a particular organ, fund or programme of the United Nations or to special missions are considered outside candidates for the purpose of this examination. The assignment of staff members who are successful in the examination and are selected to fill vacancies will be subject to the conditions set out in paragraphs 12 and 13 below.

3. Staff members of the Secretariat applying for the examination must:

(a) Have French as their main language; 1/

(b) Have a perfect command of French and an excellent knowledge of English. Knowledge of additional official languages of the United Nations would be considered an asset. The Board of Examiners, appointed by the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management, requires that candidates' claims to knowledge of official languages must be supported by relevant documentation in their official status files. Staff members who have been enrolled in a United Nations language course in any of the languages claimed must have passed the United Nations language proficiency examination in that language. Candidates who have not attended the United Nations language courses in the languages claimed must substantiate their claims to knowledge of those languages. For this purpose, staff members should attach to their application a photocopy of either a diploma or a certificate from a language school or a brief explanation of how they acquired knowledge of the languages claimed. Staff members are advised to submit photocopies, not originals, of such documentation;

(c) Hold a degree from a university or institution of equivalent status at which French is the language of instruction;

(d) Have three years of experience in verbatim reporting. The Board will also consider candidates who have three years of professional experience in journalism, interpretation, translation, editing or a related field. For the purposes of this examination, proofreading and transcription will be considered related fields;

(e) Have word-processing skills. Staff members selected to fill vacancies will be required to operate a dictaphone and, while listening intermittently, to type out the text of a recorded speech using a dictaphone and a word processor. Candidates should indicate the keyboard speed in paragraph F of the attached application.

4. The requirement for a university degree or its equivalent from a university or institution of equivalent status at which French is the language of instruction may be waived for staff members who, in the judgement of the Board of Examiners, have adequate post-secondary educational qualifications from a university or institution of equivalent status and adequate secondary educational qualifications from an establishment at which the language of instruction is French, in addition to five years of continuous service with the United Nations Secretariat by 31 December 1989.

5. All applications for the examination will be reviewed by the Board of Examiners. All applicants will be notified of the Board's decision in respect of their application. THE BOARD'S DECISIONS ARE FINAL.

6. The written examination will consist of three papers:

(a) Editing of a text in French to bring it into conformity with the original English version which will be made available to the candidates (two hours);

(b) Editing of and making the necessary logical and stylistic corrections to an original French text (one and one half hours);

(c) (Optional) Editing of a text in French to bring it into conformity with an original version of a Spanish text which will be made available to the candidates (one hour).

7. The use of a dictionary or any other reference material will NOT be permitted during the examination.

8. On the basis of the results obtained in the written examination, the Board of Examiners will invite selected candidates to an interview, which will normally take place 10 to 12 weeks after the written component of the examination. The Board will interview each candidate to assess professional experience, knowledge of the United Nations and current events, willingness to serve at any duty station, adaptability to the prevailing working conditions of service in the Verbatim Reporting Service and, in particular, ability to work as a member of a team. The interview is an integral part of the examination. Therefore, candidates who are invited to an interview SHOULD NOT assume that they will be offered an assignment as a French verbatim reporter.

9. Candidates invited to the interview will be requested to type out on a word processor, from a dictaphone recording, one original 10-minute taped speech delivered in French (one hour). No changes are to be introduced in the text. Candidates who do not successfully complete this word-processing skills test will be considered to have been unsuccessful in the examination and will not be considered for recruitment.

10. Candidates invited to the interview should indicate their preference of keyboard by returning to the Examinations and Tests Section the form which will have been forwarded to them with their invitation to the interview.

11. On the basis of the overall results of the examination, the Board will recommend to the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management the most suitable candidates for inclusion in the roster. All candidates admitted to the examination will be informed in writing of the Board's final recommendation in respect of their candidature. The Board's recommendations ARE NOT subject to appeal. The Board DOES NOT release individual scores.

12. Staff members selected to fill vacancies will be assigned as French verbatim reporters for a trial period of two years. Staff members at the P-1 level or below will receive a special post allowance to the P-2 level. Staff members at the P-2 and P-3 levels will be assigned at their respective levels.

13. Staff members with a special post allowance to the P-2 level and those already at the P-2 level who complete the trial period successfully and are recommended by the Office of Conference and Support Services and the Office of Human Resources Management may be promoted to the P-3 level. Staff members already at the P-3 level who complete the trial period successfully will be confirmed in their verbatim reporting functions at the P-3 level. Staff members who do not complete the trial period successfully will be reassigned to posts at their previous levels and the special post allowance, if any, will be discontinued.

14. French verbatim reporters are assigned, as members of a team, to meetings of various United Nations bodies and are required to prepare from sound recordings verbatim records of speeches delivered in French or of simultaneous interpretation into French of speeches made in other official languages of the United Nations. In preparing records, verbatim reporters must check for accuracy and make the necessary changes of style, syntax and grammar. For such editing, verbatim reporters must compare their texts with those transcribed in the original language of the speech or with the corrected version in another official language, with a view to producing records reflecting accurately and completely the spirit as well as the letter of the proceedings. In order to ensure such accuracy and completeness of the records, translation constitutes a major component of the work of French verbatim reporters.

15. In order to service meetings of the Security Council, verbatim reporters are often called upon to work outside of normal working hours, including weekends and holidays.

16. Staff members from Headquarters applying for the examination should complete the attached form and submit it to the following office NOT LATER THAN 8 April 1996:

1996 Competitive Examination for French Verbatim Reporters
Specialist Services Division
Office of Human Resources Management
Room S-2575E
United Nations Secretariat
New York, N.Y. 10017
Fax: (1-212) 963-3683

17. In order to ensure receipt of all applications submitted by staff members from offices away from Headquarters, these staff members are requested to return their applications to the Specialist Services Division through the chief administrative officer or director of the United Nations information centre of their respective duty stations before 8 April 1996, the deadline for receipt of applications in the Specialist Services Division.

18. Staff members may obtain copies of model examination papers from the Examinations and Tests Section, room S-2560L, United Nations Secretariat, New York, N.Y. 10017. Staff members working at the United Nations Office at Geneva may obtain copies of model examination papers from the Training and Examinations Section, room 4, Le Bocage.
